DECLARATION

(as extracted from UCI Cycling Regulations, Para 1.1.023)

1. I hereby declare that I am aware of no reason why I should not be granted the requested licence/membership.

I undertake to spontaneously return my licence/membership in the event of any substantial change to the circumstances existing at the time of the application for a licence/membership.

I declare that I have not applied for a licence/membership for the same year to the UCI or to any other national federation.

I assume exclusive liability for this application and for the use that I shall make of the licence/membership.

I declare that I have taken the requisite insurance coverage for races organised or sanctioned by the UCI or SCF, and that the particulars relating to insurance coverage above are true, accurate and correct.

2. I hereby undertake to respect the Constitution and Regulations of the International Cycling Union (UCI), its Continental Confederations (i.e. Asian Cycling Confederation, ACC) and its National Federations (i.e. Singapore Cycling Federation).

I declare that I have read or have had the opportunity to become acquainted with the aforesaid Constitutions and Regulations.

I acknowledge and agree that my personal information provided as part of my application shall be passed and held by the UCI.

I shall participate in cycling competitions or events in a sporting and fair manner.

I shall submit to disciplinary measures taken against me and shall take any appeals and litigation before the authorities provided for in the regulations. I accept the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) as the sole competent body for appeals in such cases and under the conditions set out in the regulations.

I accept that the CAS shall be the court of last instance and that its decisions shall be definitive and without right of appeal. With those reservations, I shall submit any litigation with the UCI solely to the courts within whose jurisdiction the head offices of the UCI lie.

3. I agree to submit to and be bound by the UCI anti-doping regulations, the clauses of the World Anti-Doping Code and its international Standards to which the UCI anti-doping regulations refer and to the anti-doping regulations of other competent bodies as per the regulations of the UCI and the World Anti-doping Code provided that they comply with that Code.

I agree that the results of the analysis may be made public and communicated in detail to my club or team or to my paramedical assistant or doctor.

I agree that all urine samples taken shall become the property of the UCI which may have them analysed, especially for purposes of health protection research and information.

I agree that my doctor or the doctor of my club or team may, on a request from the UCI, communicate to it a list of any medicines I may take and treatment I may undergo before any given competition.

4. I accept the conditions regarding blood testing and accept to undergo blood tests.

PART TWO – LICENCE HOLDER

DEFINITION

In accordance to Part 1, "General Organisation of Cycling As A Sport," and Chapter 1 "Licence Holders" of the UCI Cycling Regulations,

The licence is an identity document confirming that its holder undertakes to respect the (UCI) Constitution and regulations and which authorise him/her to participate in cycling events.

A licence holder may participate in a cycling event organised or supervised by the UCI, the UCI continental confederations, the UCI member federations or their affiliates.

KEY CONSIDERATION

Reference: Chapter 1, 1.1.006, UCI Cycling Regulations

Before the licence is issued, the licence holder and the national federation must ensure inter alia that the licence holder is adequately insured against accidents and civil Responsibility in every country where he practices competitive cycle sport or training throughout the year for which the licence is issued.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Reference: Chapter 1, 1.1.030, UCI Cycling Regulations

Day Licence: National federations may permit, under such conditions as they may determine, persons who take part in cycling events only occasionally to take part in a particular event at national level without holding a licence valid for a whole year. These conditions must include agreement to abide by the regulations of the UCI and the national federation and suitable insurance coverage for the whole day or all days of the event.

NOTE

All other rules and provisions as spelt out in the "General Organisation of Cycling As A Sport,” and Chapter 1 “Licence Holders” of the UCI Cycling Regulations, remains in force.
